Cabanas may be paid for by credit card, check, or transfer of appreciated stocks for tax benefit. A large portion of the cost of each cabana is tax deductible as a donation to a 501(c)(3) charity. Payment by appreciated shares you may have owned for some time allows you to release the full value of the shares, less only the cost of goods and services received, as there are no capital gains for a share donation to a non-profit. Please consult your tax advisor, as individual circumstances may vary.
